

So you can go on feeling

some people
are afraid to have
heroes

as if it
somehow
says something about their strength

that their too good
to look up

well,
I spend most my
time on the ground

so,
I've made a habit
of looking up

and it took
one of my heroes
to define
what it is
I spend all my time doing what I've dedicated my life to

so forcefully

I write
"so
you can go on feeling"
