

Hey!

Hey baby!
you better watch your ass!

you think you're something
but you ain't!

I write
what I want to write!

and I got too much
respect for the craft
to write about you!

You just stroll
on past, honey!

I don't need or want you!

I've had the best, baby
and you weren't it!

So you get them
delusions of grandeur
out of your tiny little head!

I'll write about you
just to say I
don't write about you!

Shit!
I've got a hand
and it works fine...
